Mullin, Farmed Out, Says He Will Come Back

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—George Mullin is no longer a National. Manager Griffith has announced that waivers had been secured on the veteran pitcher, and that he would either be sent to Montreal or Buffalo, of the International League.

This ends the long controversy going on here, and that Griffith had sought waivers on this pitcher. Several days ago Griffith was asked to waive the American League clubs to waive on the veteran, but the National's boss most emphatically declined to do so.

Mullin joined the Nationals while on the last western tour. He was secured by the club for $10,000 on the waiver price. Several years ago Mullin was considered by some of the best pitchers in the major league ranks, but rather time has since taken away from him much of his former skill.

Griffith did not think that Mullin was through as a big league when he signed him. He expected this pitcher to be a good deal of different ence in his work, but once joining the Washington club Mullin has failed to show enough form to warrant his being retained.

"Mullin has received his last chance," said manager Griffith. "Had he been able to win his games I would have kept him."

Mullin insists that he will be back in the club about August 1.

"I am not a has been by any means," said he. "While a member of the Nationals I was a good pitcher, but luck has always broken against me. My pitching here, as I know, has been very much better than it was when I was in the majors. I can take it from me, I am going to 'come back.'"

Just what club will secure the services of the veteran is not known. Buffalo and Montreal are both dickering for him, but it is probable that the latter will be given the preference.

D ETOIT, Mich., July 17.—Back in the days of 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, Hughie Jennings was lauded as the smartest of baseball generals. All around the circuit there was craze for the skipper of the Detroit Tigers. A na single season he developed a sixth place team into a pennant winner, and had it on top for three successive years in the American league.

Just while the Tigers were prospering, and folks spoke kind words to Hughie, he always replied:

"Give all the credit to the boys, and I'm just one of them. You don't see me punching out a hit in the pinch or fooling the batter when he must be fouled out."

After three straight years of success and prosperity, the tide turned. They don't herald Jennings the great one any more. He is just one of the fans, Hughie is not such a brainy fellow any more.

But Jennings' statement came true. The remarks he made when the Tigers were winning the pennants, can be renewed and show why the Tigers aren't winning the pennant this season.

"Give all the credit to the boys, not me."

Why aren't the Tigers winning pennants like they did in 1907, 1908, 1909? The answer comes by comparing the team that won for the Tigers those years and the team Hughie Jennings is directing today.

Jennings hasn't a pitcher who can go through a season and win 25 games and lose 10, like Walter Johnson and Red Egan did in 1907. Further, Eddie Summers, who used to beat the Athletics almost every time he pitched; Killian, who used to beat the White Sox and Red Sox, and George Mullin, who won almost every time he took the hill, are gone and forgotten.

It is the same team that is down in the second division, jockeying with the Browns. Hughie Jennings' record as an idol in baseball. Jennings' character as a manager, his style of coaching; his personality; his way of arguments, not roughing and not fussing, but just talking, really, have made Jennings such an idol.

It was the Jennings system that made Hughie popular with everybody. When he came to the White Sox, he brought with him a new style. It was common on the diamond to see Jennings, Jener, Clark Griffith, Jimmy Collins, and the other managers, jump up to the ump and kick 'up a rowdy fuss on every close decision.

When he came to the White Sox, to see some managers bowl out the players during the course of the game. Jennings had a different system. He was a manager who was in the dugout with an "All right, boys; let it go at that," adn when one of his boys turned a bad play, Hughie simply said, "That's all right, boys, and give a kind word on the ball field.

A new player, R. Grissom, who played second base for Texas A. & M., has been signed by the Athletics. Grissom was given a tryout at Washington park Thursday afternoon. From reports, the Athletics is happy with the willow, and will be a valuable addition to the team. It is probable that if Grissom shows ability to play a position either in the outfield or in the infield, he will go back, Tommy Smith will shift to left, although the infield at present is crowded with the strongest in the league. Kansas is the only college boy to offer his services to the Mavericks, and he will be given work as a pitcher.

A carload of Mavericks will be billed straight through to Silver City, by business and traffic manager, Bill Smith, who expects to arrive there tomorrow afternoon. The Miners and El Paso clubs will clash in the initial game of the season at 7:30 p. m. C. O. League, El Paso and Santa Rita are the contenders at the top of the heap at

CARROLL LEAVES; BLAMES DEFEAT TO ALTITUDE

Jack Carroll, the San Francisco middleweight, who was knocked out by Jack Herrick Sunday at Juarez, left Wednesday night for San Francisco, blaming his defeat on the altitude of the high altitude, which, he claimed, destroyed his vitality to such an extent that he was a sick man when he entered the ring.

Before the fight, after he had finished training, Carroll issued a manifesto, in which he stated that the condition for the fight, and, although he was handicapped by the intense heat that was used to meet Herrick for the championship, Herrick felt the heat as badly as Cameron, and when he came here last year the altitude was less, and he was able to defeat Kid Mitchell a 20-round draw two weeks after his arrival from the

is true of the bills that pour in when your pay envelope stops because you are disabled. The butcher, the grocer, the landlord, the clothier, all want their money and you need it for doctors' bills and medicine. Of course, you may not expect accident or sickness at present; but it is prudent to be prepared for what may come by taking a little each week from your income and depositing it to your savings account at our bank. Decide to do it on your next pay day.

HERRICK TO FIGHT

According to reports the boxing game at Nogales, Sonora, is in the hands of a competent promoter, who is ready to stage first class bouts. Joe Herrick, manager of Jack, received a letter from James Doherty asking him to wire the terms for a fight in 12 rounds at the bull ring in Nogales.

"My terms for Jack are a $300 guarantee with a privilege of 25 percent for Jack," Joe Herrick said. "I will meet any selection which the promoters may make from 158 to 162 pounds."

Joe stated that he would accept the same terms and meet any boxer weight-

FIGHT ON JULY 20
A 26-round bout between two blacks has been arranged for Sunday, July 20 by the National Boxing Association. The match is billed to decide the heavyweight championship of the southwest, but as negroes are not considered "colored" by the boxing critics, it will be the first fight between Clarke, the boxer, who can hit from any angle, and Rufe Cameron, the slinger.

Jack Dugane, the elongated lightweight with the recuperative powers, will meet Johnnie Kane in a four-round semi-windup, and Doc Williams and Big Boy Williams will go four cantos as a curtain raiser.
